

Good Shepherd Skit

Disciple: You'll never guess what Jesus just told us, He said He was the Good Shepherd.

Shepherd: Really? How so?

Disciple: He said that where others - hired men - turn and run away, he stays and looks after His sheep.

Shepherd: Ah yes, well, that is a good shepherd.

Disciple: Yes, but He said He is THE Good Shepherd. He's the One. The One to lead people and watch over them. The One that knows His sheep by name. The One that will lead them to pasture...

Shepherd: Well, my lad, that is what a good shepherd would do. So I guess, if He calls people His sheep He would need to be a good shepherd to look after them. But why is He THE Good Shepherd?

Disciple: Because He leads us to the most amazing place. The place only He can lead us to.

Shepherd: And where would that be?

Disciple: Well, heaven of course. He leads us to His father's house in heaven.

Shepherd: My, that sounds very nice.

Disciple: It is! He's the only One that can lead us there because He is the One who is completely good - He is God.

Shepherd: Completely good, hey? Well I've never met a shepherd that's completely good. Pretty good... yes, completely good? Never.

Disciple: That's why he's the One. The good shepherd.

Shepherd: Let's take a walk and you can tell me more about him...

Disciple: Sure!
